Celtic Fire Irish Dance Company in Springfield Missouri is considered an outreach partner of St. Louis Irish Arts in St. Louis. Students who register with Celtic Fire Irish Dance Company will be considered official Irish dancers and are eligible to enter Feiseanna under the umbrella of Helen Gannon TCRG and St. Louis Irish Arts School.

This Partnership has created a wonderful opportunity for dancers in an area where no TCRG now resides. Performances of Traditional Irish Dance by Pats Students are of a very high profile. I am proud to be associated with this school of dance.
